Background
This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns and trends in conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback and input for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends
Dec 2017-Feb 2018
According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), incidents reported during this period included communal violence, criminality, militancy, cult violence, and child trafficking.

Communal Violence: In February, a community leader was reportedly killed by the police during a protest by youths in Abi LGA. The youths were protesting the detention of some village chiefs and a youth leader over a missing cattle belonging to some herdsmen in the area.

Violent Criminality: In January, a robber was reportedly killed during a gun battle between members of his gang and the police in Calabar South LGA. There were also incidents of kidnapping during the month. In Akamkpa LGA, a male medical doctor was kidnapped and later released by gunmen. In Calabar Municipal, a female medical doctor was abducted in Calabar Municipal. Separately, in January, a female medical doctor was kidnapped in Akamkpa LGA.

Gang/Cult Violence: In January, four people were reportedly killed during a rival cult clash between Bendeghe Mafia and another local cult group in Boki LGA. A policeman was reportedly injured during a shootout with the cultists. Separately, a man was reportedly shot dead by members of a cult group, known as the King Crackers during a political assembly in Calabar South LGA.

Child Trafficking: In December, a 62-year old woman was reportedly arrested by immigration officials for trafficking a 4-day old baby girl in Calabar Municipal.

Others: In February, Cameroonian gendarmes reportedly killed three fishermen and injured two others in a border community in Ikom LGA. The incident happened while the gendarmes were in pursuit of separatists agitating for Ambazonia Republic in Southern Cameroon.

Recent Incidents or Issues, March 2018
Incidents reported during the month related mainly to communal tensions, criminality, and cult violence.

Communal Tensions: Eight people were reportedly killed during a clash over a land dispute between Okwabang and Beebo communities in Boki LGA. Separately, over two thousand economic trees including palm trees and raffia palms were reportedly destroyed following renewed tensions over land dispute between Etap Ayip, Kasuk Qua...
Clan II and Ikot Ansa communities in Calabar Municipal LGA.

Criminality: A woman reportedly killed a man who was fighting with her husband in Yala LGA. The woman hit the deceased with a stick during a fight with her husband.

Cult Violence: Three people were reportedly killed during a clash between the KKK and Viking cult groups in Calabar Municipal. The clash was part of an ongoing supremacy battle between rival cult groups on the campus of the University of Calabar.

Others: There was a protest by women over the raping of their colleague by a 5-man gang of robbers in Ikom LGA. In a separate incident, nine people including a 10-year old boy suffered severe burns following explosion caused by adulterated kerosene at different locations in Calabar Municipal LGA. The explosion occurred while the victims were refilling their lamps and cooking stoves.

Prognosis

Incidents during the period included communal conflict, cult violence, child trafficking, and criminality including kidnapping and assassination. Peace Actors in the state should monitor the situation closely and respond appropriately.
